Cit. By Anca (working at the restaurant in the kitchen):
'I don't see the prints of my shoes on the canvas...now I am sad because I will not be famous'

Cit. By Angela (working inside the kitchen):
'I don't really step over there while I cook but I will try and go over it every now and then'

Cit. By Manuel (one of the chefs):
'But it's gonna get so dirty! When I am in the kitchen I make a mess! You are gonna have oil, sauces and even my sweat on the canvas!'
-Me:
'Don't worry! that's exactly what I am looking for! I want you guys to just do your job and forget about the canvas under your feet; My intent is to have this canvas showing the reality of your hard work during this summer weekend inside the kitchen of this restaurant'
